

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, June 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier made a statement in connection with Frank Burnett's Yukon mining claim, in which he said that the interior, hitherto the province of the interior, was to be controlled by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, the present Minister of the Interior. The supplementary bill was introduced into the House of Commons, and the original bill was read practically as printed to clause 27 in committee of the senate.

NEW MINISTER SWORN IN

Ottawa, June 21.—M. P. Borden, M. P. for the riding of Etobicoke, was sworn in as minister of Indian Affairs at 12:30 p.m. yesterday in place of Sir Henry May, M. P. for Galt.

The government general is on the Redpath, enjoying a few days sailing.

FIRS IN PITTSBURG

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 21.—At 1:30 p.m. yesterday afternoon fire broke out in the building containing the FIRE and Wood stores. The entire building was burnt.

STABINING AT LETHBRIDGE

Lethbridge, June 21.—A Frenchman, named Blouin, was stabbed seven times by F. Fincher at the Hotel Lethbridge. The man is in the hospital. Most of the wounds are in the chest, but one is considered dangerous.

DOMINION MINT

Ottawa, June 21.—The premier made a statement in the house in regard to the British Columbia crisis. A motion was made that the government be asked to be relieved of its responsibilities. The public works estimates were read and passed before adjournment at 12:45 p.m. The temporary committee holds session. Hon. H. H. Stevens, Collector R. S. White being examined.

Ottawa, June 22.—Mr. Richardson introduced a bill to amend the property tax of C. P. R. The bill is proposed from taxation which was lost on a vote of 34 to 6, and was introduced in the house in consequence of the question to "the course by municipalities, but said he would not accept the bill as it stands. The bill as presented by Mr. Richardson, in the senate, the western grain trade bill was amended.

HURLED TO DEATH

Express Train Runs Over a Precipice.—Thirty-Five Persons Losing Their Lives

Douglas, Ga., June 25.—A terrible accident occurred on the Southern railway line last night, a fast train on the Southern railway running over a precipice. The disaster was the most frightful in the railway history of the south, every passenger on the train was killed with the exception of those occupying the parlor car, who escaped with slight injuries. It is estimated that 35 persons met their death in the awful accident.

DROWNED AT CANMORE

Bert Mills, resident of Calgary, was drowned in the Bow River at Canmore on Saturday night. He was working on a log bridge under the direction of Mr. G. J. Mills. He fell from the bridge and was drowned almost instantly. Mills was a married man.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Mr. John Hallam, of Toronto, is dead.

The Rev. Dr. Johnson of London, Ontario, is dead.

The Rev. Mr. Conquill cabinet has been completed.

The National convention at Dublin has closed.

Yesterday was the hottest day of the year in Winnipeg.

Hon. Mr. Smith was publicly entertained at Edina, N. Y.

Recent showers at Brandon have done much good.

Trout Haddick has returned from the South African campaign.

Frank Weyet, wanted for murder, has been arrested.

The Khedive of Egypt has arrived in English waters on an official visit.

Frank Haddick, 17 years of age, was drowned in the Red River at Winnipeg. Canada's timber exhibit at the Paris exposition has been awarded the first prize.

W. Calder, of Williston, N. D., died on the 17th while on route to Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Wheat advanced at an advance of 10 cents per cent. under the high prices at Minneapolis.

A woman in R. Louis was severely gashed for patronizing French girls.

St. Paul district residents have asked for the dismissal of district recorder.

One hundred French Canadians left Montreal to take part in a religious celebration at St. Boniface.

Leopold Molson has been dismissed and Sir Henri July will succeed him.

One man lost and several persons were injured in a hotel collapse at South Bend, Ind.

The "F. W. Woolworth" store at Winnipeg, were destroyed by fire.

George MacLellan, of the Marine patrol office, Hat Portage, was drowned while bathing.

The contest has been awarded and won by the Canadian Hapton contingent at Brandon, Manitoba.

The robes are encamped around the city of Brandon and the surrounding anticipated shortly.

The doctors of Winnipeg are a most strongly disengaged of the new hospital.

A Frenchman, named Blouin, was stabbed many times at a Lethbridge, Alberta, residence.

The 50th anniversary of the landing of the French in Canada was celebrated at Lethbridge.

The report of Admiral Seymour's death and the number of foreign losses at Pease is not credited.

OKOTOKS

Frank Watt, who again lost his foot, with an arrow is around again and is as cheerful as ever.

The Grangemen have held a special meeting to consider the proposed bill of the interior, hitherto the province of the interior, to be controlled by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, the present Minister of the Interior. The supplementary bill was introduced into the House of Commons, and the original bill was read practically as printed to clause 27 in committee of the senate.

Marchet McDonald, late of Meath, Ireland, who built a hardware store here, has died.

Our cheques report business fair. Robert Young was fined $500 for supplying whiskey to a minor.

Miss L. W. Smith has resigned the position of teacher at Okotoks last week.

There is great demand for land in the Sheep Creek country.

Several of our ranchers and citizens went in to see the Calgary races. All went in to see the Calgary races. All went in to see the Calgary races. All

The owners are waiting out the farmers to do their state duty.

A report is current that Donald Murray has sold his farm (200 acres) to Mr. Ross residence.

Mr. Alex is building a commodious house on his farm.

The Newell ranch can now be bought in the hands of Wm. E. McLeod for $10,000.

Hanchers and others are inquiring about the land.

We are all pleased to see the great results of the world war.

There is a great demand for land in the Sheep Creek country.

There is a great demand for land in the Sheep Creek country.

It is certain to you.

PENHOLD

A move is being made towards building on our station.

The number of the crossings of the creek east of here is receiving some attention, at the hands of the engineers, and the work will be done when finished. But travellers may be able to get along without difficulty.

Mr. J. A. G. Smith, who made it a government job, is really indifferent to the state of the road.

Rev. F. W. Locke preached his farewell sermon in the schoolroom on the 18th. On the 19th the school was held a picnic by the congregation.

Saddle Horses.—Driving and Light Team Work.

Heavy Horses.—Driving and Weighting.

Several Mares suitable for breeding Farm Horses.

Mares bred to High Class Clydesdale Stallions on reasonable terms.

George HOADLEY, Okotoks

Opposite Alberta Hotel

INCORPORATED 1870

W. M. DODD,
Opposite Alberta Hotel
Late of Winnipeg.

34-21m

Opposite Alberta Hotel

Late of Winnipeg.

